OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

Dear Commission Applicant:

The attached application is required to be filled out and submitted prior to any Commission appointment. Please be aware that the City Code requires every applicant to be an elector of the City.*

In addition, you should be aware that if you are appointed to the Cultural Heritage Commission, Library Board of Trustees, Design Review Board or Planning Commission, you are required by City/State Law to complete a Statement of Economic Interests.

Thank you for your interest in serving the City of South Pasadena as a Commission Member. This information will be distributed to the members of the City Council and is considered a public document. All applications are kept on file for two years.

* "Elector" means any person who is a United States citizen 18 years of age or older and a resident of an election precinct at least 29 days prior to an election. (Election Code 321)
